Consider your unfading beauty

Meditate on 1 Peter 3:3-4. How does it affect your heart when you hear God's word speak about the priority of the two aspects of your beauty? Jot down your thoughts, below.

Don't be concerned about the outward beauty of fancy hairstyles, expensive jewelry, or beautiful clothes. You should clothe yourselves instead with the beauty that comes from within, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is so precious to God.
1 Peter 3:3-4 (NLT)

Confronting real clothing

This passage isn't prohibiting clothes, jewelry, styling the hair, etc. Rather, it's to bring to our hearts a wisdom that persuades us to put the emphasis on the true clothing of our womanhood:

Below, list the comfort and counsel that Abba, Father, is assuring you in, as you clothe your inner and outer person.

Confronting what's deceptive

In a Bible dictionary (click here). Look up the words: charm, beauty, deceptive, fleeting and fear of the LORD. There's space if you choose to write out some definitions:

Allow this to comfort and counsel your heart:

The main Hebrew and Greek words translated fear in the Bible can have several shades of meaning, but in the context of the fear of the LORD, they convey a positive reverence.
